SPECIAL CLEARANCE AND ISSUANCE PROCEDURES

(TL:VISA-262; 04-18-2001)

None.

DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS (SLOVAKIA)

Birth, Marriage and Death Certificates

(TL:VISA-91; 08-01-1994)

Available. The certificates of birth, marriage or death are issued by the local town hall in the place of birth, marriage or death. Slovakian law requires special certificates for use outside Slovakia (internal certificates may not legally be sent abroad).

Divorce Certificates

(TL:VISA-262; 04-18-2001)

Available. Each party to a divorce suit, which has taken place before Slovakian courts, may apply for an additional copy of the divorce decree. The original decree is normally delivered to each party provided the address is known. Additional copies of divorce decrees are subject to fees, according to the decree of the Minister of Finance, No. 3/1951, Collection of Laws, item 23.

NOTE: Persons not physically in Slovakia may apply for the required documents through Slovakia diplomatic or consular representatives abroad. Application may also be made through the applicant's diplomatic representative in Prague.

In case the document needs to be "super-legalized", it must be authenticated by the Slovakian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The application in this case must be made on a form prescribed by the Slovakian authorities and obtainable from the diplomatic representative. Six weeks to six months are normally required to obtain public documents after the application has been submitted by the diplomatic representative to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Police and Prison Records

(TL:VISA-369; 03-12-2002)

Police clearance is available and reliable in Slovakia. Application for police clearance must be accompanied by an identification document, birth certificate and fee. The records are indexed by name, date and place of birth. An application may be filed either in Slovakia or at the Slovak Embassy abroad, and is issued to each applicant over 15 years of age. Processing time for foreign nationals in Slovakia is approximately one week. If the application is filed from abroad, it takes longer.

Police clearances are issued by local regional branches of the Slovak General Prosecution, located in each regional city. Purge of records is possible upon request, based on conditions specified in the criminal act.

Military Records

(TL:VISA-91; 08-01-1994)

Available. If a Slovakian citizen, for important reasons, needs a certificate concerning the length of his military service in the Czechoslovakian Army, the document may be issued free of charge by the local military authority. Such certificates, however, may not be issued to aliens who reside in Slovakia only temporarily.
